

Social Media Policy

The goal of the YCL is to use as many venues as possible to market its programs and services to the public. It will, therefore, use social media for this purpose. All information must be clearly written and up-to-date. The library director or staff members designated by the director is the author of all social media postings. Yankton Community Library staff will follow the Social Media Policy outlined in the City of Yankton Personnel Manual.